Serial Publication Order No. OFLC/3/2007

Date: 05 October 2007

For the Classification Office (signed):

Notes:

1. While this serial order is in force in respect of the above-named serial publication, no person shall do any act or thing in relation to any issue to which the order applies (other than an issue that has been classified by the Classification Office or the Film and Literature Board of Review) that would be an offence against any of the sections 123 to 129 of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 if that issue were an objectionable publication or a restricted publication, as the serial order may require.
2. The Classification Office may include, as part of the serial order, conditions on the public display of issues to which the order applies, or any advertising posters relating to those issues. While the serial order is in force, no person shall do any act or thing in relation to any such issue or, as the case requires, any such advertising poster that would be an offence against section 130 of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 if that issue were a restricted publication and that condition has been imposed pursuant to section 27 of the Act.
